

How can we remove soap scum and fix marble chips on marble sink?

Q. We have two marble bathroom bowls that have soap scum on them. The bowls also have some chips on the surface.

A. A good quality soap scum remover should be able to solve the problem (assuming the problem is, in fact, soap scum), but the chips on the surface would need to be handled by a professional. Should you require the services of a Certified SurpHaces PRO Partner, contact us.
